

KPAE Condensed Authorized Signatory Test | 2020

---

Name: _____ Date: ____/____/20____

Department: _____

1. The requirements for a person to become an Authorized Signatory are:

- Maintain all records for approved personnel
- Attend Biennial Authorized Signatory training
- Complete Authorized Signatory Training
- All of the above

2. The airport relies on this person(s) to help determine badge types each company employee needs in order to do their job.

- Authorized Signatory
- Airport Police
- FAA
- TSA

3. Authorized Signatories have the responsibility of protecting:

- Security Sensitive Information (SSI)
- Personally Identifiable Information (PII)
- Both a and b
- None of the above

4. Airport ID badges must be immediately deactivated:

- When an employee leaves the company or vacates the hangar, and if a badge is lost or stolen
- By TSA
- As a test on a regular basis
- When an employee goes on break

5. A common preventable reason for a badge processing delay is?

- Not keeping appointment times
- Submitting illegible or incomplete forms
- Improper forms of identification
- All of the above

6. Once the applicant has been approved they have 30 days to obtain the badge or they are required to start the process over?

- True
- False

7. What must the Authorized Signatory report to the Airport Credentialing Office?

- Badge privileges are no longer necessary
- Lost and/or stolen badges
- Termination of an employee
- All of the above